EDITOR "FOUND" NORTH POLE

STENOGRAPHERS SAYS STORIES OF COOK AND PEARY WERE REWRITTEN

Washington, Feb. 2.—Miss Lillian E. Kiel, of New York, who said she was a stenographer employed by a magazine that printed articles under the names of Rear Admiral Peary and Dr. Cook on their return from the Arctic regions, testified tonight before the House Committee on Education that neither of these articles was written in its entirety by the explorer whose name it bore but that both were rearranged in the magazine office.

Miss Kiel was one of several witnesses who testified in connection with the resolution of Representative Smith of New York, designed to establish the priority of the discovery of the North Pole. The list included Representative Smith, Edwin Swift Balch, of Philadelphia; Carl Brown, of Albany and E. G. Lost, of New York.

Miss Kiel said she took the dictation of Dr. Cook's statement. She said Dr. Cook was at a hotel in Newburgh, N. Y., that he dictated his story of the polar explorations, sent it to New York to the magazine and after he received proofs and had "O. K." them a sub-editor of the magazine clipped the proofs, eliminated certain paragraphs and inserted others, the result being, she said, that the story indicated a confession of failure.

She said that Rear Admiral Peary's story was first obtained by questions asked by a reporter, and a woman transcribed the notes and wrote the story. The rear admiral, she said, had a contract or an agreement of some sort under which the magazine was not to print anything detrimental to him.

"In other words," asked Representative Towne, of Iowa, "this particular statement called Dr. Cook's story is partly his statement and partly a manufactured story that was inserted?"

"Yes, sir,"
"The magazine did not find Dr. Cook's story sufficiently exciting and sensational to suit them?"
"They were under contract with Mr. Peary not to print what would be detrimental to Mr. Peary," Miss Kiel replied.

Letter From Mrs. Thomas:

San Jose, California, Jan. 28.
Editor Leader: A whole month has passed by since last I wrote a line to the home folks at Guthrie. Well, you will see by the heading that we are still in San Jose, Calif., and have rooms and are pleasantly located and enjoying the flowers here in mid-winter.

I took quite a tramp today and as it was warm, much like May, but damp and rainy tonight. As I was going to say I was surprised to see so many beautiful lilies and roses in bloom. Just think of Chinese sacred lilies that we at home put in a dish of water and keep in a warm room to coax it to bloom, is left in the ground all winter here and is now in full bloom, making the air fragrant. There has been a light frost two mornings, but did no harm. The oranges, the finest ever, are coming in from Southern California. Not many grown here, as sometimes the frost gets them. The little Jap orange is plentiful and only five cents a dozen. Large oranges are sold in the streets, three dozen for two bits. How many of the little folks in Guthrie know how much money that means?

We see by today's paper you are having some cold weather. Hope it don't get the peaches. I guess my last letter written from here must have been too long and therefore got into the waste basket.

We are anxious to know how many of our Guthrie friends are coming to the Fair and just what time they are coming. They must come on to San Jose. They will find our latch string out.

Mr. Thomas has not improved in health. We are in the rainy season and pretty damp but farmers declare it one of the best winters. The rain comes down as though it was in no hurry, so it all soaks in and I imagine the soil is well soaked. What we would call a little shower is spoken of as a storm. We wonder what the old settlers would do if they happened to have a rain storm, such as we get in Oklahoma. You can't imagine how it looks to us to see so many saloons here. They never close on Sunday.

Acute Articular Rheumatism

The exact cause of rheumatism is unknown, though it is generally believed to be due to an excess of uric acid in the blood. It may be also said with equal truth that no remedy has been found which is a specific in all cases. In fact the literature of rheumatism shows that there are but few drugs which have not been given a trial. In the hands of one observer we find that a certain drug has been used with the utmost satisfaction; others have found the same remedy to be a great disappointment. All physicians however agree that every method of treatment is aided by the administration of some remedy to relieve the pain and quiet the nervous system and Dr. W. B. Schullz expresses the opinion of thousands of practitioners when he says that Anti-Kamnia Tablets should be given preference over all other remedies for the relief of the pain in all forms of rheumatism. These tablets can be purchased in any quantity. They are also unsurpassed in headaches, neuralgias and all pains. Ask for A-K Tablets.

and to see the young men coming out of those dens makes my heart ache. We want all the old friends to know that we are enjoying life out in the Golden West, but Oklahoma has a warm place in our heart. Our address is 80 B. George Street, San Jose, California. — Mrs. J. A. Thomas.

PRISON FOR BANKER WHO TRIFLED

It appeared that it was plainly intended to cover all cases of white slavery, whether the ordinary kind or cases that had the commercial feature. He said that the law had been on the statute books for four years or more and if intended for only cases of commercialized vice, there had been ample time to change it.
He asked that the defendant stand up. A rather tall man with glasses, his temples sprinkled with gray, and with bowed head declared he had nothing to say why sentence should not be imposed. The court then assessed the prison sentence and the fine. In the courtroom with Crump sat his gray-haired wife and his son and relatives. After he was sentenced he was permitted to go with an officer to the hotel and prepare for his term in prison.

Every Street in Guthrie

Has Its Share Of The Proof That Kidney Sufferers Seek

Backache? Kidneys weak? Distressed with urinary ills? Want a reliable kidney remedy? Don't have to look far. Use what Guthrie people recommend. Every street in Guthrie has its cases. Here's one Guthrie man's experience.

Let S. R. Hunter, 1216 W. Mansur Ave., tell it. He says: "My kidneys were in bad shape, causing my back to become lame. I had pains through my kidneys, especially when I was on my feet for any length of time and at night I could not get my proper rest. The passages of the kidney secretions were attended with pain and I knew that I must do something for relief. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that I finally got a box from the Corner Pharmacy. It didn't take them long to remove the trouble. During the past several years I have enjoyed good health. The endorsement I have given Doan's Kidney Pills before, holds good."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Hunter had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Shaving Parlor in the Hotel De Gink

The Hotel De Gink, recently opened in New York City for the winter accommodation of men who can not find work, has not all the modern conveniences. The city gave one of its buildings to the committee in charge but the building contained little more than bare rooms sufficient to take care of about 150 men. The hotel shown in the illustration found a piece of broken looking glass in an old barrel. He borrowed a cheap safety razor, then the shaving parlor was as complete as the average hotel. One man had to shave at a time, and sometimes he had to use a blade which a half dozen before him had already dulled. But it was better than no shave at all, and the men stood in line to get a chance.
